

LOVE WHERE YOU ARE @ SCHOOL

A Gathering of Christian Public School Educators

Sunday, December 11, 2016 5:30 PM - 7:30 PM

Southeast Christian Church • 920 Blankenbaker Pkwy • Louisville

Christian public school educators are everywhere in our schools, yet they can feel isolated and alone. This gathering unites Christian educators throughout the Kentuckiana area, including southern Indiana and the Kentucky districts of Jefferson, Bullitt, Spencer, Oldham, Anchorage, Shelby, Hardin, Henry and Trimble.

The evening will strengthen Christian educators in their calling to be salt and light in their roles as teachers, administrators and support staff. The purpose:

Encouraging Christians serving in the public schools to love our colleagues, students, and families in the special moments the Lord provides

Join the hundreds of like-minded Christian educators in this evening of worship, prayer, encouragement and inspiration. Enjoy fellowship over a meal with colleagues from your school. Let this evening be a catalyst to build Christian community inside your school to support and encourage each other in this high calling. You will leave not only energized in your position at school but empowered with a new sense of belonging and equipped with resources to stay grounded.

Keynote speaker: Mike Hicks, fellow Christian educator and national director of LIFT America, a movement of large gatherings of Christian educators across our nation.

Tickets are $10 and include dinner.
Invite your colleagues & fill a table of 7.
