CONNECTICUT HISTORY DAY COMPETITION

This month's speaker:

Sally McMahon

Sally heads up the Connecticut History Day competition at Praise, Power and Prayer Christian School in Windsor. She will introduce you to the CT and National History Day Competition- that takes place every year in Connecticut and culminates with finalists attending the national competition. This competition is open to all public and private school children.

In addition to her presentation, Sally is always willing to add words of wisdom after raising a large family of 10 children, along with husband Pastor Ray McMahon who is principal of PPP Christian School.

We meet at Praise, Power and Prayer Christian School, 209 Kennedy Rd. in Windsor, Connecticut (off I-91 in Windsor.)

LIFT America Event Planning: If you are a Christian Educator who feels a burden to reach out to other Christian staff in your school community and want to get involved, join us this Saturday for an update on LIFT America from Clara Ruffin.
