Southeast Christian Church · 920 Blankenbaker Pkwy · Louisville, Ky

PURPOSE

Encouraging Christians educators serving in public and private schools to love our colleagues, students, and families in the special moments the Lord provides.

As Christian educators in public and private schools, having a strong community of Christian colleagues to encourage you, pray with you, walk difficult roads with you makes all the difference. This community transforms the culture of your school to a place where the fruit of the Spirit can be evident to students and staff alike. This doesn't just happen. It takes a focus and energy that comes through community.

Join the hundreds of like-minded Christian educators in this evening of worship, prayer, encouragement and inspiration. Enjoy fellowship over a buffet meal with colleagues from your school. Let this evening be a catalyst to build Christian community inside your school to support and encourage each other.

You will leave not only energized in your position at school but empowered with a new sense of belonging and equipped with resources to help you stay grounded. Come and be a transformer for your school with God's love and truth to anchor you.

Hear from keynote speaker Dr. Bill Ziegler. Dr. Ziegler is heard on over 500 Christian radio stations with daily 1 minute broadcasts, was the 2016 Pennsylvania Principal of the Year, serves on school leadership teams for the Great Leaders Summit in China, Apple Research Study group, Corwin Consulting Group and recently spoke to Capitol Hill for better ERate coverage for schools. He is a sought-after speaker on leadership for national education conferences across America.

Your registration includes a buffet dinner. Tickets are $15 each or begin your Christian community now and recruit seven colleagues from your school to join you at your table for $120.
