Daniel Weekend Information Sheet

PURPOSE:

Our desire is to see God's love and truth on display in our public schools. We are bringing together public school educators for a weekend of refreshment, vision, brainstorming sessions, and coaching for developing creative strategies. Together we can see God's glory demonstrated greater in the public school arena. Daniel Weekends are hosted by Christian Educators (www.ceai.org) and Tentmakers (www.tentm.org).

DATES:

February 23-25, 2018

Check-in: Friday 4:30 pm

Program: Friday dinner at 5:30 pm through Sunday lunch, ending at 2:00 pm

COST:

$30 deposit required; all other costs, including rooms and meals, are generously covered by anonymous donors who believe in this ministry. We ask all participants to attend the entire weekend.

LOCATION:

The Wonder Valley Ranch is a quiet, peaceful location in the Sierra Nevada foothills 40 miles east of Fresno. The meals are wonderful, and the rooms are spacious. During the afternoon break, rest and other activities such as hiking, boating, and sports are available. <http://www.wondervalley.com>

TOPICS PRESENTED AND DISCUSSED:

- What kind of culture would you like to see in your school, and how might that be created?
- How does one keep spiritually fit for their teaching job as a modern-day Daniel?
- What are the lines between church and state?
- How much can a teacher share or say about their faith?

Come share what your challenges are and what is working for you. We use a workshop format with time to talk, listen, share experiences, think, plan, and goal set. One of the seminars is set aside to specifically review legal restrictions and freedoms for mixing faith and teaching in the classroom.

"This weekend helped me network, gave me tools, a renewed excitement and sense of purpose for reaching kids and colleagues." ~ Participant

"I've been feeling overwhelmed and defeated, now I'm encouraged to focus on God's priorities." ~ Participant

Please contact one of the hosts for this event and we will send you an application.
