KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Pat King is a cover girl, not for a fashion magazine or professional educational journal, but for Jesus in education. Jesus said, "Don't hide your light under a basket. Let your light shine, not to glorify yourself but your Father in heaven." (Matthew 5:16) Pat was shining for 12 years in private Christian schools in the United States and then for 27 years in the public universities of China, one of the most oppressive communist atheistic nations in the world.

Pat received the 2009-2010 CEAI Houston Teacher of the Year Award, co-authored the devotional, Getting Off the Bus, published by CEAI-Houston and has always been active in community outreach projects and CEAI Houston events during her return visits to the United States. Pat is now retired and living in Onalaska, Texas.

BLAKE AND CRYSTAL

Music at the banquet will be provided by Blake and Crystal Quimby. They are currently serving as worship leaders at Living Waters Church in Rosenberg. Blake serves as a staff member of Living Waters Christian School. They both have deep hearts full of love for God, evangelism, youth and community service. They recently recorded and released a new album, "Jesus You Reign."

LUNCHES OF LOVE

Lunches of Love (LOL) began as a ministry of First United Methodist Church Rosenberg during Christmas break 2009 and fed approximately 150 children. In 2012, LOL became a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and is now feeding 4,000+ children and expanded its program to include 16 LCISD schools, 2 FBISD schools and a second host site - Lunches of Love at The Harvest. LOL feeds children in need and those qualifying for the state's free lunch program. A board member will be presenting testimonies, the history, mission, services of and volunteer opportunities of this organization. Over 2,000,000 lunches have now been served through LOL.
