

Christian Educators is coming to the Twin Cities!

Finding Hope in the Crisis: Christian Educators in Public Schools

A Christian Educators Association International Dinner Event

Friday, August 3, 6:00 PM - 8:45 PM

Navigating the Sexual Revolution In Our Schools with God's Love and Truth: What's a Christian Educator To Do?

Clint Elliott
Alliance Defending Freedom Affiliate Attorney, Family Pastor and CEAI Board of Directors

Gender identity confusion, comprehensive sex education,
coed bathrooms and the new world of pronouns and compelled speech...

Learn the truth about the new gender ideology and join the discussion for a Christ-centered response.

Spiritual Warfare in the Classroom: Understanding the unseen realm that affects you and your students every day.

David Schmus
Executive Director of Christian Educators Association International

There is a war raging in your classroom every day. You can't see it, but you see the results—anger, shame, addiction, suicide, porn.

Come take a look behind the veil, and learn how to stand against and defeat strongholds of the enemy in your life and on your campus.

Bonus Conversation:

Between sessions, David Schmus and Clint Elliott will provide a legal update with Q+A on issues facing Christian educators, recent Supreme Court rulings, and more. Get your questions answered!

Location: Country Inn & Suites, 591 West 78th Street, Chanhassen MN 55317

Cost: $12. Seating is limited. Enjoy delicious barbecue with us!

Register: ceai.org/event/find-hope

Christian Educators Association International ceai.org info@ceai.org 888.798.1124